

SKILLED VOLUNTEER ENGAGEMENT

For individuals, it can be a worksheet to gain insight into personal objectives, motivations, skills, and talents when seeking to contribute as a skilled volunteer to any non-profit organization.

For organizations, it is a simple and effective method to determine how to best create opportunities for skilled volunteers, and/or to discover whether an individual is a good fit for a role.

Wise Why's Why are you passionate about the mission/cause?	Glad Gifts What skills/talents are you ready to share?
Givers Gain What are you personally seeking to learn or gain?	No-No's What are you not interested in and/or able to do?

Adapted from Volunteer Alberta
 From the book "Building Strong Volunteer Relations" [Chapter 4, pg 37-50] by Ivan Scheier
www.volunteeralberta.ab.ca